

ELAAN FEST (APEEJAY STYA UNIVERSITY)

A three-day inter-college festival, 'Elaan', was recently organised by the Apeejay Styta University (ASU). The Festival witnessed huge participation from various colleges and universities across the National Capital Region. It offered students a platform to showcase their talents pertaining to athletics & sports, performing arts, creativity, technology and literature. While the first day of the event focused on Athletics & Sports, the second day of the event was based on literary competitions and technological extravaganza. The final day of the event, titled Tarang, was dedicated to some interesting competitions like fashions show, singing, dancing, Battle of Bands, Street plays, and many others. The event was inaugurated with the lighting of lamp by Dr SK Salwan, Vice Chancellor, Apeejay Styta University and the Chief Guests for the day, Mr Ajay Singh, CEO, Works and Pensions, Govt. of India along with Senior Advocate, Supreme Court, Nalini Singh.
